APPLICATION TO EXTEND ADMINISTRATION

[R.C. 2109.301, Sup. R 78(B) and (C)]

The undersigned fiduciary applies to extend the administration of the estate beyond six months. The fiduciary states it would be detrimental to the estate and its beneficiaries or heirs to file a final and distributive account or certificate of termination within that time for the following reasons (state with specificity):

Due to the extenuating circumstances that this estate presents, and not due to delay. More time is needed to collect beneficiaries reimbursement owing as a result of overpayment of their distribution.
